

POLICE BLOTTER

TOWN OF NIAGARA
 The following occurred Saturday, Aug. 27, to Sunday, Sept. 4, as reported by the Town of Niagara Police Dept. according to the Niagara County Sheriff Office's website, www.niagarasheriff.com.

Saturday, Aug. 27
1800 block of Military Road, larceny - Complainant stated a female selected and concealed merchandise and left the store without making any attempt to pay for the items. Patrol confronted the suspect, who began to argue and stated she did not steal the merchandise. The stolen merchandise was identified in her possession. She then became irate and struggled to resist being handcuffed. Patrol brought the suspect back to the store, where the complainant and multiple store employees positively identified the suspect. Return to court date issued.

Saturday, Aug. 27
1700 block of Military Road, larceny - Complainant stated a female selected merchandise and left the store without making any attempt to pay for the items. No further information.

Thursday, Sept. 1
1500 block of Military Road, larceny - Complainant stated a female selected and concealed merchandise and attempted to leave the store without paying for the items. Patrol found the subject to be in possession of the merchandise. Return to court date issued.

Friday, Sept. 2
1600 block of Military Road, harassment - Complainant stated she had been harassed by her ex boyfriend and she would like to peruse charges and file for an order of protection if it happens again. Patrol contacted the subject and advised him he is to no longer contact the complainant. Patrol then cleared without further incident.

Saturday, Sept. 3
2000 block of Military Road, larceny - Complainant stated a female selected and concealed several items and proceeded to leave the store without making an attempt to pay for the merchandise. Patrol found items on suspect, who was then arrested. Return to court date set.

Park Drive, damage to property - Complainant stated while she was sleeping in her bedroom, she heard the glass window above her head suddenly break. When the stop - Male 54 seen driving a

Sunday, Aug. 28
1900 block of Fashion Outlets Boulevard, larceny - Complainant stated a female selected and concealed merchandise was. Patrol observed video footage of the incident, but was unable to determine the item stolen either. Report filed. Patrol cleared without further incident.

Monday, Aug. 29
Packard Road, vehicle/traffic stop - Male 39, observed following a vehicle too closely, causing a dangerous condition on the road. The vehicle's registration was found to be suspended for an infraction. The driver also had a suspended driving status due to two active scoffs. Vehicle parked. Ball set at $200.

Lockport Road, vehicle/traffic stop - Male 54 seen driving a

Scouts embark on European journey

A co-ed contingent of youth and adult members of the Great-Niagara Frontier Council, Boy Scouts of America, and their counterparts from the neighboring Sea island of Hallig Oland in Germany, which is located in the Wadden Sea National Park), will be joined by members of Das Haus Museum and the Historical Society of North German Settlements in Western New York for a community open house from 6:30-8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 8, at Adams Volunteer Fire Co., 7113 Nash Road, Wheatfield. There will be multimedia displays and participants on hand to answer questions about the journey and the various programs of the Boy Scouts of America. In addition, several leaders of the Ring Evangelischer Gemeindepfadfinder Scout Association from Harrislee, Germany, will be in attendance. Information about Das Haus Museum and the Historical Society of North German Settlements in Western New York will also be available. The public is invited to attend this free community event.

For further information, contact Troop 833 Scoutmaster Dave Greimert at 550-0721.

Greater Niagara Frontier Council, District of the City of Western New York.

The Polaris District of the Scout Association, Guides from Gemeindepfadfinder (REGP) and the Historical Society of Das Haus Museum in Bergholz are touring with their hosts from the American Scouts encamped as a base for much of the trip, U.S. Department of State.

Using the Stevinghus International Scout Center in Denmark Troop 8 (Cambria Volunteer Fire Co.) for the overseas adventure. The Scouts, the American group joined by 10 members of TTC Ventore Scout Crew 286 (Brightmore Presbyterian Church), and Wheatfield), Troop 539 (Ken-Adams Volunteer Fire Co., leaders from GNFC Troop 833 Fourteen scouts and adult many and Denmark.

cently took a 16-day trip to Germany, which is located in the Wadden Sea National Park), will be joined by members of Das Haus Museum and the Historical Society of North German Settlements in Western New York for a community open house from 6:30-8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 8, at Adams Volunteer Fire Co., 7113 Nash Road, Wheatfield. There will be multimedia displays and participants on hand to answer questions about the journey and the various programs of the Boy Scouts of America. In addition, several leaders of the Ring Evangelischer Gemeindepfadfinder Scout Association from Harrislee, Germany, will be in attendance. Information about Das Haus Museum and the Historical Society of North German Settlements in Western New York will also be available. The public is invited to attend this free community event.

Shown are scouts and youth members on their recent trip to Europe.